

News Flash

May 22nd, 2009

230 MEDICAL PROFESSIONALS ATTEND EUROMEDIC'S COLLEGE OF IMAGING FIRST RADIOLOGICAL CONGRESS

Two Hundred and Thirty Medical Professionals, Professors and Senior Executives from the most prestigious Private and Public Diagnostics facilities from 10 European countries participated in Euromedic's College of Imaging - Multithematic Diagnostic Imaging Congress in Athens, Greece.

The Congress was chaired by Dr. Nikolaos Liasis, Medical Director and Vice President of Euromedic Greece and took place in the Athens Imperial Hotel. Among the speakers and invited lecturers were a number of Leading European Radiologists including: Professor Istvan Batyanni (Hungary), Professor Nicholas Gourtsoyiannis (Greece) and Dr. Ettore Pelosi (Italy). The Congress was also addressed by Euromedic's Chairman of the Board Janos Meszaros and Dimitris Moulavasilis President Euromedic Greece.

The primary objective of the congress was to provide state of the art knowledge transfer and dialogue regarding Imaging Diagnostics for the latest developments in the Hot Fields of the specialty including: Breast Imaging, Cardiac Imaging, MRI and Multi Dimension CT protocols of the abdomen and advanced Ultrasound applications.

